CHAMPIONS LOSE BY ERRORS

Game Taken by Cincinnati by 6 to 2 Score—Wagner Put Out.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 29.—Fielding and battery errors gave Cincinnati a 6 to 2 victory over Pittsburgh to-day. Wagner was put out of the game in the seventh inning because he disputed a decision by Umpire Moran at the plate, when a double play spoiled all chances for Pittsburgh to score. At tomorrow's game the world's championship pennant, which Pittsburgh won from Detroit last fall, will be raised at Forbes Field with appropriate ceremonies. Score:

PINKOLA TAKES HANDICAP RACE

Overnight Feature and Five Selling Stakes Card at Latonia.

Latonia, Ky., June 29.—Five selling races and an overnight handicap, for which but four horses were nominated, comprised the card at Latonia to-day. Despite this, there was a fairly good crowd out. The track was still sticky.

Pinkola was picked to win in the handicap, the fourth event, and rewarded his backers. A long shot finished first in the opening dash, when Outfielder covered a lot of extra ground and took the purse. The pari-mutuel price on the colt was better than 25 to 1.

First race—selling, purse $300, four and one-half furlongs—Outfielder ($55.10), Moeckler ($10, place), second, Jack Weaver ($6.30, show) third. Time, 1:12.5.

Second race—selling, purse $300, five furlongs—Marsand ($9, first), Pearl ($6.20, place), second, Wachula ($4.80, show) third. Time, 1:01.5.

Third race—selling, purse $300, six furlongs—Lotta Creed ($3.60, first), Acolin ($11.10, place), second, Gellard ($4, show) third. Time, 1:14.2.

Fourth race—selling, purse $500, mile and seventy yards—Pinkola ($3.10), first, Tom Higbee ($2.60, place), second, Dr. Holzhberg ($2.10, show) third. Time, 1:42.5.

Lynchburg, Va., June 29.—Lynchburg bested Richmond to-day in a hard-fought game, the score being 5 to 2. Lloyd's support was faultless, while the Colts had an off day in the field. The two runs in the eighth were partly due to Baker's wide throw to first, drawing Shulte off. This was followed by a scratch, and Lloyd's double for two runs, the second being after Salve, hammer and tonic, in the first, a pass, Dick Smith's scratch, Rowe's sacrifice and Artie Smith's single, which Timman flaced, scoring two runs. A Smith went home on Heller's double to center.

Lloyd got in a number of pitches, but was able to hold the Colts hitless when his meat runs. The nearest the visitors came to scoring before the fifth inning was in the eighth, when Dick Smith threw Timman down at the plate. Landgraf went to third on this play, but the next man fouled out at first.

Again a Colt perched on third in the fourth and sixth, and another was on second in the third, but the needed hit did not come. Salve pitched better ball than the score indicates, for had he batted a single in either of four innings another world have tallied for each hit. His work was gilt-edged save in the first and eighth rounds.

Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON.

The meeting to settle the fate of the Portsmouth baseball club, which, incidentally and by-the-way, has already been settled, which was to have been held in Murphy's Hotel last night, was again postponed until either Friday or Monday. In fact the necessity of a meeting is nil so far as the Portsmouth club is concerned. The stockholders, however, are slightly curious as to how they will come out of the matter. Jake Wells is the center of attraction of the meeting, and he has not been able to get away from the machinations of the Great White Way, where he is taking the fight right up to the chins of the theatrical trust. Reports say he is winning the fight, and so, of course, he is not able to be in Richmond while the fight is going on. If he were losing it would be another matter.

There really need be no tremors as to the Portsmouth situation. The Portsmouth club will fill all its dates for this season at any rate and under an adjustment of conditions will be consummated.

In regard to the adjustment there really doesn't seem to be but one way out of it. That is to raise the percentage of the gate receipts allowed the visitors in Richmond and Norfolk.

Let that be put in effect next season, and in the meantime Mr. Bradley can use his surplus cash in putting the diamond of the Broad Street Park into proper condition. That would help the game, too.

That stiff-arm delivery of Salve's was pie to the Lynchburgers yesterday, and they went after him like a terrier after a rat. Ten lovely hits told the faithful tale, and when the dust of battle cleared the score was 5 to 2 in the Lynchburg camp. The Colts pulled down eight hits that Lloyd never intended, but they couldn't do the work when hits would have brought the bacon home.

Owner Bradley has signed up a first baseman to join the Colts when they return by the name of Schultz, who is said to be a wonder. He is alleged to have batted .220 last season with Monte Cross, on the Scranton, New York State League, club, with a fielding percentage of .968. He will join the Colts this afternoon unless something happens.

Bigbie has fallen off in his hitting in the last three weeks, and it is supposed that that is why the new first baseman is signed. It seems to the writer, although he confesses that he is far from being infallible, that there are other places that might be patched up with more reason than the first base job. Bigbie's fielding is tip top, and until the batting slump that has hit him in the midst he was a high card. If he is let go before the Richmond management gives the new man a long try-out the writer also predicts that the management will have made a great big mistake.

The player limit is such that somebody will have to be let go if the new man is signed up, and the logical man to go in such case will be Bigbie. If he is let go the betting is that he will land with another team and make it rather warm for Richmond. Therefore the advice to the Richmond management is that Bigbie had better be retained.

It seems rather hard for Richmond to win without Revelle in the box. The others keep the team down to the 500 mark with the utmost persistency, and there seems to be no let up.

Poor old Portsmouth got it again when it was the most good yesterday afternoon, when Bigbie's Richmond's old place on the 500 mark.

For a team that showed up in the worst kind of form in the early part of the season, Danville has rounded out into the smoothest proposition that the Virginia League has. The winning streak that was started about a month ago is sticking close, and the winning streak is the direct result of clean team work.
